QuickBooks versus Sage 100 Contractor
Benefit Comparison Guide

Benefits & Capabilities Overview:	Sage 100 Contractor	QuickBooks
Controlled Access: Personalized security settings set-up for those who you want to see project details and perform certain tasks.	Yes	No
Improved project visibility: Daily field report information keeps you informed on employee, subcontractor, delivered materials, and equipment activity on job site. Available project information includes committed costs, work in progress, aged unapproved change orders, item lists requiring immediate attention and punch items.	Yes	No
Mobile time reporting: Use mobile devices to collect and view employee time worked on a project.	Yes	No
Easily Manage Change Orders: Create individual prime or subcontract change orders for signature. Be alerted on aged or unapproved change orders.	Yes	No
Document control: Centrally track and quickly drill into key project documents and communication surrounding drawings, specifications, transmittals, liens, contracts and more.	Yes	No
Project scheduling capabilities: Use integrated scheduling capabilities to best decide on how to proceed with a project at any point by producing Gantt charts that show critical paths, and assessing schedules, project costs and contract details.	Yes	No
Integrated service work order management including multi day service dispatch capability: Handle service scheduling, call tracking, status reviews, customer communication, and service work order creation and billing within one system.	Yes	No

For more information about Sage 100 Contractor and TAG's construction software services, contact: sales@teamtag.net or call 888-TEAMTAG